

Investors Have Questions and Virtus Has Answers

Virtus Launches Ad Campaign with InvestmentNews

HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 22, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- Virtus Investment Partners (Nasdaq: VRTS), which operates a multi-manager asset management business that includes the Virtus Mutual Funds, has launched its first advertising campaign designed to help financial advisors answer the questions that advice-driven investors often ask.

"Our goal is to provide financial advisors with comprehensive answers to the investment questions they're most typically asked by their clients," said Jeff Cerutti, executive vice president and head of retail distribution. "Many of the questions featured in the ads – such as 'what's my defense against rising rates?' – have particular relevance to the current investment environment."

The Virtus Mutual Funds are diversified by manager, style, and discipline, and include multiple offerings in equity, fixed income, and alternatives asset classes. Virtus had $4.5 billion in mutual fund sales in 2010, an increase of 63 percent from the prior year.

"With our wide variety of attractive products, strong distribution partnerships, and sales momentum, we felt this is the right time to introduce our brand more broadly into the marketplace," Cerutti added. "We chose to partner with InvestmentNews because of the prominence of the publication within the financial advisor community and its loyal readership."

The campaign began with an ad in the February 14-18 print issue of InvestmentNews. Virtus is scheduled to run one print ad in each edition of the magazine through mid-May. The print campaign will be complemented by placements in InvestmentNews' weekly online publication, Market INTelligence.
